NIGEL FARISO

Harare, Zimbabwe | +263772999730 | farisonigel@gmail.com | https://github.com/farisonigel-arch

Professional Profile

Software Development student with a background in accountancy, seeking internship and entry-level opportunities to build hands-on experience in software development. Brings strong analytical skills, accuracy, and professionalism from finance-focused roles, with a clear commitment to transitioning into software engineering through structured learning and practical projects.

Education

Software Development Specialization | Uncommon.org | Harare | July 2026 – Present

- Currently specializing in Software Development following completion of a multi-disciplinary IT foundation program.
- Building core programming fundamentals, problem-solving skills, and practical development workflows through hands-on exercises and projects.

IT Crash Course (Foundation) | Uncommon.org | Harare | January – June 2026

- Completed an intensive foundation program covering basics of Design, Digital Marketing, and Software Development.
- Progressed into Software Development specialization based on performance and interest in programming and systems thinking.

National Certificate in Accountancy (Award) | National Rehabilitation Centre | 2018

- Developed strong grounding in accounting principles, accuracy, reconciliation, and structured reporting.

Ordinary Level (Pass) | Mufakose 2 High School | 2014

Work Experience

Accounts Intern | City of Harare | Harare | July 2023 – February 2024 (8 months)

- Supported day-to-day accounting operations, ensuring accurate data entry and timely processing of financial records.
- Assisted with reconciliations and documentation, maintaining organized records and audit-ready files.
- Used accounting tools and Microsoft Office to compile reports and track transactions with strong attention to detail.

Accounts Intern | Ministry of Sport, Recreation, Arts and Culture | Harare | April 2024 – December 2024 (8 months)

- Prepared and updated financial documentation, improving consistency and accuracy through careful verification.
- Collaborated with team members to meet deadlines and support month-end activities and routine reporting tasks.
- Demonstrated professionalism, confidentiality, and reliability while working with sensitive financial information.

Skills

- Use of SAP Accounting Software
- Microsoft packages (Word, Excel, PowerPoint)
- Attention to detail, adaptability, teamwork, reliability